Requirements for Inclusion of the Papers in the Conference Programme

For each submitted paper it is required that at least one of the co-authors registers, pays any applicable registration fees, attends, and presents during the scheduled conference session. On this basis, we require the following:

1. Each paper accepted for inclusion in the conference programme requires at least one author to be registered to present the paper. Papers that do not have a presenting author registered and with the required fee received within June the 1st will NOT be included in the conference programme and will NOT be included in the conference proceedings.
2. Registered Authors can present a second paper at no additional cost.
3. Presentation of a third paper by the same author will NOT be allowed (i.e. a different co-author must register).
